

FOR PRESIDENT,

BENJAMIN HARRISON

OF INDIANA.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

LEVI P. MORTON

OF NEW YORK.

A FOREIGNER'S KICK.

A few days ago the writer heard a young man in this city cursing the Government of America because he was compelled to pay a poll tax of $3.

He thought it was an outrage and a robbery, and swore he would leave the State before he would be robbed again.

The writer talked with the young man over his grievances and learned that he was 26 years of age and gloried in the idea that he had dodged the poll tax collector four times already, and gave himself great credit for having been so smart. He was a German by birth, and acknowledged that he had been in the State four months and had $100 saved up. When asked how long it would take him to save $100 in Germany he made no reply.

He seemed to be a generally well disposed young man, but had not been taught the idea that a tax of $3 paid to a Government that gave him protection and enabled him to earn a good deal more money than he could have earned in Germany, was not exorbitant.

He belonged to a class of people who are industrious and honest but have a disinclination to pay any tribute to the Government under which they live.

A native born American boy when he reaches the age of 21 is willing to pay his poll tax, and when he gets his receipt prizes it highly, because it is a certificate that he is old enough to vote, and he rather enjoys the feeling of having it.

NOT REINFORMED.

Capt. Todman says that the APPEAL is misinformed about the matters at the Lake.

On the contrary the APPEAL is well informed about these matters.

In the Spring the APPEAL made a notice that the boats would run clear round the Lake each day during the Summer, it having the assurance from Captain Todman himself that one could reach any point on the Lake on the same day no matter from what point.

Now, will Captain Todman please answer these questions:

Can anyone from this side of the Lake reach the West side without being compelled to stop over night at the Grand Central?

Can people go by way of Truckee and reach any point on the Lake without being compelled to stop over night at the Grand Central?

Is this sort of a "forced put" liable to help the Lake in the long run?

These three questions we would like to have answered.

COL. ELLIS ON THE STUMP.

On Saturday evening Col. Ellis, of this city, addressed the local Democracy of Alameda on the subject of the tariff. The Times thus reports his speech:

- 10:02. Lumber. Devastating the surface of God's fair earth.
- 10:05. The jute factory. Put jute of the free list.
- 10:07. Wool.
- 10:08. Still harping on sheep.
- 10:12. Raisins.
- 10:13. The Mills bill.
- 10:14. The Chinese question supplemented by the assertion that another speaker would discuss this question at greater length.
- 10:15. First applause in ten minutes.
- 10:16. Allen G. Thurman's name evokes applause that rouses the sleepers in the gallery.
- 10:17. Sudden cessation of the flow of words.

Richard Kirman proposes to sink still deeper, on the Norrie discovery on the West side of Mt. Davidson.

Still Changing.

A letter from Ohio stated that the Ashtabula Beacon, edited by J. H. Serveir, the leading Democratic paper, has come out squarely for Harrison and Morton on account of the tariff issue. The editor could not advocate the free-trade ticket against the true interests of the country.

The Columbus Times has changed its politics from Democratic to Independent. It also changes its name to that of the Columbus Press. It could not support a free trade President. The Democrats in Ohio consider the action of the paper significant because it is published in ex-Senator Thurman's city.

Another Ohio Democratic journal, the Meigs County Herald, has declared for the Republican ticket.

A prominent Republican said recently that the Buckeye State would likely give 50,000 Republican majority.

L. J. Britton, Chairman of the Republican State Committee of Ohio, has written a letter saying that the postmaster at Achor, Ohio, has received a request from the Democratic National Committee to contribute $100 for campaign expenses. Britton concluded by saying that the salary of the Postmaster is $75 a year.

A Lincoln, Neb., barber was fined $25 and costs, $73 in all, for refusing to shave a colored man. He was prosecuted under a law passed in 1885, which enforced equal rights, notwithstanding color, in theaters, hotels, etc.

If the colored man were to call every day and be refused a shave, he would soon break the haughty barber up.

The City of Chester and Oceanic sighted each other half a mile apart, and did not meet until 20 minutes after that. When ships collide under such circumstances either one or both captains' licenses ought to be revoked.
